

Questions for the interviews to teachers

1. As an English teacher, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in EFL classrooms?

Yes, I do.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process in an EFL classroom?

It could be an advantage because literature helps us to understand different cultures.

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. In your experience, do you know if your students like to read in their own language? Why? Why not?

No, they don't like reading because it's not part of our culture yet.

5. What type of material do you read in class with your students?

short articles, novels, books

6. What literary works do you think are going to be appropriate in the EFL language classroom?

updated articles related to real life.

7. What is important for the students when they are reading a specific material?

the purpose

8. What do they like to read?

magazines, articles on the internet

9. Would they just read any material?

I don't think they would read any material because it depends on their interests. Well, at least not for fun.

10. In your experience, how can we use literary texts, Literature in order to have better results in teaching in EFL classrooms?

Give students short texts and let them get involved.

11. What activities do you as teacher develop to involve your students in Literature activities?

reading short articles.

12. In your experience, what is the best way to teach Literature in the classroom?

Bring interesting material where students can be motivated to ask questions. Eg.: unusual facts.

Questions for the interviews to teachers

1. As an English teacher, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in EFL classrooms?

Yes, I do.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process in an EFL classroom?

It can very useful to improve vocabulary and other skills

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. In your experience, do you know if your students like to read in their own language? Why? Why not?

Some students like reading in Spanish but most of them think ^{it is boring}

5. What type of material do you read in class with your students?

Articles / Short stories / books

6. What literary works do you think are going to be appropriate in the EFL language classroom?

Short stories, novels, tales depending on the level

7. What is important for the students when they are reading a specific material?

They should know what 's the purpose of it

8. What do they like to read?

Short stories, interesting tales, fables, newspaper articles

9. Would they just read any material?

No, the material has to be appropriate.

10. In your experience, how can we use literary texts, Literature in order to have better results in teaching in EFL classrooms?

We can use different texts and do fun activities with them

11. What activities do you as teacher develop to involve your students in Literature activities?

Create short stories where they are the main characters.

12. In your experience, what is the best way to teach Literature in the classroom?

Through games, dramatizations, role play

Questions for the interviews to teachers

1. As an English teacher, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in EFL classrooms?

Yes, Of course. It's necessary.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process in an EFL classroom?

because it is useful to learn vocabulary, grammar, idioms etc.

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

-

4. In your experience, do you know if your students like to read in their own language? Why? Why not?

We don't have the culture of reading but when they have motivation and interesting things to read they read.

5. What type of material do you read in class with your students?

all kind of material depending of the level of the students but mostly materials of the real life, science, etc.

6. What literary works do you think are going to be appropriate in the EFL language classroom? ^{and related to their careers.}

paragrap~~h~~s, short readings, books or printed material from internet.

7. What is important for the students when they are reading a specific material?

the level of difficulty and if the reading goes with their interest.

8. What do they like to read?

books and articles related to my subject. teaching and other things to novels. etc.

9. Would they just read any material?

if they have a good motivation yes.

10. In your experience, how can we use literary texts, Literature in order to have better results in teaching in EFL classrooms?

with the books or articles they choose.

11. What activities do you as teacher develop to involve your students in Literature activities?

games, role plays, activities of crosspuzzles, etc.

12. In your experience, what is the best way to teach Literature in the classroom?

encouraging them to read good articles, books. the literature they choose and also the good literature you choose telling them how important it is for them. in conclusion if you give motivation you wake their interest in a piece of paper.

Questions for the interviews to teachers

1. As an English teacher, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in EFL classrooms?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process in an EFL classroom?

because English teachers should teach not only ENGLISH, but it has to involve something more on culture, civiliation, etc..

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. In your experience, do you know if your students like to read in their own language? Why? Why not?

they don't like to read, because most of the times they read to be evaluated and I think reading is not only that but for enrichment, sharing, improving, etc..

5. What type of material do you read in class with your students?

short stories, paragraphs from their textbooks, and some extra readings from internet.

6. What literary works do you think are going to be appropriate in the EFL language classroom?

any kind of literary works will be helpful.

7. What is important for the students when they are reading a specific material?

It's important for them to feel they're learning and they are able to discuss about their reading.

8. What do they like to read?

I think most of them like Science Fiction, Horror or mystery books.

9. Would they just read any material?

Yes, but they'd enjoy reading if they read something they like.

10. In your experience, how can we use literary texts, Literature in order to have better results in teaching in EFL classrooms?

I think it would be difficult at first because of our culture, but we could start with very well-know works...

11. What activities do you as teacher develop to involve your students in Literature activities?

From time to time I have my students dramatize parts of literary works.

12. In your experience, what is the best way to teach Literature in the classroom?

I don't have much experience teaching literature.