

Figure 1. A) Newly hatched Anolis proboscis male. B) A. proboscis juvenile. C) A. proboscis adult male. D) Male bite and proboscis lifting. E) Biting attempt from MIN 5 (left) to MIN 10 (right). F) Jaw locking between MIN 27 (left) and MIN 29 (right). G) Displays performed by male and female (fifth mating). H) Proboscis used to make physical contact MIN 5 (left) to MIN 10 (right). Photo credits: Santiago Ron (A), Diego Quirola (B-H).