

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes, I think that I need, know the grammar.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

I might learn the structure and forms of use the rules

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes. Because reading I can know many words

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

Books of Basic grammar and Books for read

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Other Book.

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

know all the words and understand the content

8. Would you like to read something different?

||

9. What would you like to read?

Books of historys the real's life

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

because I can learn so much vocabulary

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes I do. I like because there are books very interesting. I would book of my carrier

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

the book of soap opera, mystery book, magazines, article

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

article, news paper, book of mystery and adventure.

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

I can learn new things and I can learn vocabulary

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes.

9. What would you like to read?

I would like to read article of my carrier, soap operas, interesting article

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

plays in english, discuss of interesting things.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

yes I think

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

Because it mixe gramatical and exercise

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

yes I like, but I preffer to read in english for to learn.

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

newspaper, magazines, articles, etc.

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

excuse book, lectures about the life or different themes

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

the important for me, is after the read make a record of questions.

8. Would you like to read something different?

yes I like.

9. What would you like to read?

Filosofy, economic topics, news, animals live,

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

I like talk in class about the principal topic, or discuss and give our ideas about the topic in discussion.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

I think that is very important for learn the language.

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, because I can learn more vocabulary.

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

I like read soap operas, tourism documents, etc.

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

I read histories very boring.

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

Is important the vocabulary

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

I like to read about my carrier and the problems actualities

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?
Or what do you do with it?

I would like learn vocabulary and more speak English

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

YES, BECAUSE THE LITERATURE IS VERY IMPORTANT FOR LEARNING.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

BECAUSE YOU CAN LEARN NEW VOCABULARY, GRAMMATICAL STRUCTURE

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

SOMETIMES WHEN THE ARTICLE OR BOOK IS INTERESTING

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

SHORT ARTICLES ABOUT FASHION, SINGERS; SHORT SOAP OPERAS

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

SHORT SOAP OPERAS, TEST, ARTICLES

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

THE MATERIAL SHOULD BE VERY INTERESTING

8. Would you like to read something different?

YES

9. What would you like to read?

INTERESTING ARTICLE

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?
Or what do you do with it?

GAMES, WORK IN GROUP.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

Because The Literature better The brain

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

N/A

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, I learn other tools
you

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

Technical and business book

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

The histories

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

The vocabulary

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

None Technical word

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

The interactive material

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

Yes, because the Literature is very important and beneficial.

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

NO, because If I speak English all the day, I can learn vocabulary.

5. What type of material do ^{you} they read in your own language?

I read the articles about my carrier

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

The type of material are. story

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

is important the vocabulary

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

I like to read about the tourism in the Ecuador

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?
Or what do you do with it?

I would like to learn vocabulary and esturcture phrasal.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

Yes

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

Because, I think you can increase your vocabulary and know new of different topic.

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, I like, because it helps me to understand or complete my ideas of anything.

5. What type of material do ~~they~~ you read in your own language?

I read topic about my career, or sopoperas, or articles of magazine

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

The material that we use in English class are sopoperas or history

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

I think is important read specific material, that is interested the student.
for increase the vocabulary.

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes, I would like.

9. What would you like to read?

I would like to read articles about innovation.

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

I think I like to discuss in the classroom and give our opinion about the topic.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

No

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

because the material in the classroom isn't important only grammar

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

I read reports and only about my career in my own language

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

Scientific

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Easy but interesting

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

new vocabulary

8. Would you like to read something different?

sometimes

9. What would you like to read?

scientific books

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?
Or what do you do with it?

new vocabulary

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

No

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

Because is boring and hardwork

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, Because for my work I have to read Technicals books

5. What type of material do ^{you} they read in your own language?

Tech books, internet articles, Technicals magazines, comics

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Interesting and actuality articles of science, literature, geography.

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

It can be get is my attention about when I read

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

About other cultures or civilizations or psychology

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?
Or what do you do with it?

It can be games of answers and questions with categories like How wants to be a millonary, or can be see movies.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

No

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

because for me these are books that not important. Is more beneficial we read something of my carrier

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, but only articles, magazines, newspapers

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

Article, newspapers, Lideses

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Books of Adventure, History not important

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

I can learn and I can discuss my ideas

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

Magazines, Sports, Something of my courses, Documentals, Videos

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

Discuss, We can do expositions

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

no,

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

because the books of literature is boring and don't helped on the students.

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

no because we don't learn, but we have practice

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

about of our carriers, actual situations, news, etc...

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

same as: our carrier, news, sports, etc...

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

we have learn and that the topic should be interesting

8. Would you like to read something different?

yes.

9. What would you like to read?

comics, sports, news, or homeworks for investigate; biographies, etc.

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

I would like games, for example outside the classroom, ^{games} movies,

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

No.

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

Because the student needs literature material of his/her career.

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes, because I now that meaning every single word.

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

I read magazines about sport, music, politicians; newspapers, and books.

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Books of stories.

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

In my opinion, is important understand the meaning of the material.

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes.

9. What would you like to read?

Stories about sports and hollywood stars.
X-games.

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

Read and learn new vocabulary.

Questions for the interviews to students

1. As an English student, do you think that Literature or literary material could be useful in the classroom while you are learning the language?

No

2. If the answer is yes, why do you think that Literature can be an advantage or beneficial in the language learning process?

3. If the answer is no, why do you think it could not be beneficial?

Because, that books were so boring

4. Do you like to read in your own language? Why? Why not?

Yes. I like read, because to me is funny, but depend the book

5. What type of material do they read in your own language?

Scientific material, news paper, and comic

6. What type of material do they read in English in your class?

Just article of internet of new technology

7. What is important for you when you read specific material in your English classroom?

Past the level.

8. Would you like to read something different?

Yes

9. What would you like to read?

Comics, National Geography, entertainment literature

10. What activities do you like to do in class with the material that you are given?

Or what do you do with it?

* We didn't activity in the past level with the book.

* Discuss the principal topic, games, not some chapter,